

Fourth Geography Revision Guide

There are two sections in the exam: Development and Ghana; USA.

You must answer all questions on the paper. The exam is one hour long.

Style of questions:

Definitions; descriptions; explanations; completing graphs from data given; named and place specific examples; understanding geographical terminology; labels and annotations.

Topics: USA; Development, Ghana and Globalisation

Development, Ghana and Globalisation

Definitions of key terms and indicators

Ghana's location

Reasons for development or lack of development

Comparison between different countries, of their levels of development.

Small scale development projects and sustainable development.

Globalisation and TNCs

USA

Physical geography: key features, rivers, mountains, islands, climate

History, growth of population, distribution.

Economic aspects: comparison with other countries, manufacturing belt, agricultural importance

Regional study: California

Total marks available for this exam will be 128

Quality of written work will score up to 2 marks.

Final mark 130