

Year 7 Revision

There are three sections in the exam: Coping with Flooding; China; Sport.

You must answer all questions on the paper, which is one hour long.

Style of questions:

definitions; descriptions; explanations; completing graphs from data given; extracting information from graphs; named and place specific examples; understanding geographical terminology.

Coping with Flooding

Causes and consequences of flooding

Natural and human factors that make flooding worse

Damage caused by flooding

Reasons why Tewkesbury experienced flooding in 2007

What happens in a flooding crisis?

Ways in which we try to stop places flooding

China

The Physical Geography of China

Climate graphs – drawing and describing patterns

Comparing the climate in the north with the south

Comparing farming in the north and south

The Three Gorges Dam scheme

Effects of the One Child Policy

Football

Ways in which football and sport generally is related to geography

The types of jobs that are linked to football

The importance of football as a business

The impact of football stadiums on an area and its people