STAFF PRIVACY NOTICE

In the course of your employment, engagement or other basis of work undertaken for the school, we will collect, use and hold ("process") personal data relating to you as a member of our staff. This makes the school a data controller of your personal information, and this Staff Privacy Notice sets out how we will use that information and what your rights are.

Who this document applies to

Academic and other staff, contractors, visiting teachers and coaches and volunteers who may be employed or engaged by the school to work for it in any capacity, as well as prospective applicants for roles. It also applies to governors.

This notice is not aimed at pupils, or parents of pupils (whether current, past or prospective) or other members of the public, nor does it inform staff how to handle the personal data of the same. This information may be found in the school's Privacy Notice, which provides further details about how personal data will be used by the school.

About this document

This Staff Privacy Notice explains how the school collects, uses and shares (or "processes") personal data of staff, and your rights in relation to the personal data we hold.

This Staff Privacy Notice also applies in addition to the school's other relevant terms and conditions and policies, including:

- any contract between the school and its staff, such as the terms and conditions of employment, and the contents of any applicable HR handbook for teaching staff and non-teaching staff;
- the school's CCTV policy;
- the school's data and document retention procedures;
- the school's Safeguarding and Child Protection, Anti-Bullying, or Health and Safety Policies, including as to how concerns, including low-level concerns, or incidents are reported or recorded (both by and about staff); and
- the school's ICT Acceptable Use Policy and e-Safety policy and curriculum document.

Please note that your contract with the school, including any document or policy forming a part of your contractual obligations to the school, may be relevant to how the school processes your data, in accordance with any relevant rights or obligations under that contract. However, this Staff Privacy Notice is the primary document applicable to the use of your personal data by the school.

This Staff Privacy Notice also applies alongside any other information the school may provide about particular uses of personal data, for example when collecting data via an online or paper form.

How we collect your information

We may collect your personal data in a number of ways, for example:

- from the information you provide to us before making a job application, for example when you come for an interview;
- from an online search undertaken on all shortlisted applicants;
- when you submit a formal application to work for us, and provide your personal data in application forms and covering letters, etc.; and

- from third parties, for example the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) and referees (including your previous or current employers or school), or, if you are a contractor or substitute, your own employer or agent, in order to verify details about you and/or your application to work for us.

More generally, during the course of your employment with us, as a member of staff, we will collect data from or about you, including:

- when you provide or update your contact details;
- when you or another member of staff completes paperwork regarding your personal development reviews;
- in the course of fulfilling your employment (or equivalent) duties more generally, including by filling reports, note taking, or sending emails on school systems;
- in various other ways as you interact with us during your time as a member of staff, and afterwards, where relevant, for the various purposes set out below.

The types of information we collect

We may collect the following types of personal data about you (and your family members and 'next of kin', where relevant):

- contact and communications information, including:
  - your contact details (including email address(es), telephone numbers and postal address(es);
  - contact details (through various means, as above) for your family members and 'next of kin', in which case you confirm that you have the right to pass this information to us for use by us in accordance with this Staff Privacy Notice;
  - records of communications and interactions we have had with you;
- biographical, identity, educational and social information, including:
  - your current and previous name, title, gender, nationality and date of birth;
  - DfE/Teacher Pension number (where relevant)
  - your image and likeness, including as captured in photographs taken for work purposes;
  - details of your education and references/qualifications from your institutions of study;
  - social circumstances, your interests and extra-curricular activities;
- financial information, including:
  - your bank account number(s), name(s) and sort code(s) (used for paying your salary and processing other payments);
  - your tax status (including residence status);
  - information related to pensions, national insurance, or employee benefit schemes;
- work related information, including:
  - details of your work history and references from your previous employer(s);
  - your personal data captured in the work product(s), notes and correspondence you create while employed by or otherwise engaged to work for the school;
  - details of your professional activities and interests;
  - your involvement with and membership of sector bodies and professional associations;

- information about your employment and professional life after leaving the school, where relevant (for example, where you have asked us to keep in touch with you);
  - nationality and other immigration status information (i.e. about your right to work in the UK status), including copies of passport information (if applicable);
- and any other information relevant to your employment or other engagement to work for the school.

Where this is necessary for your employment or other engagement to work for us, we may also collect special categories of personal data, and information about criminal convictions and offences, including:

- information revealing your racial or ethnic origin;
- trade union membership, where applicable;
- information concerning your health and medical conditions (for example, where required to monitor and record sickness absences, dietary needs, or to make reasonable adjustments to your working conditions or environment);
- information concerning your sexual life or orientation (for example, in the course of investigating complaints made by you or others, for example concerning discrimination); and
- information about certain criminal convictions (for example, where this is necessary for due diligence purposes, or compliance with our legal and regulatory obligations);

However, this will only be undertaken where and to the extent it is necessary for a lawful purpose in connection with your employment or other engagement to work for the school.

The bases for processing your personal data, how that data is used and whom it is shared with

(i) *Entering into, or fulfilling, our contract with you

We process your personal data because it is necessary for the performance of a contract to which you are a party or in order to take steps at your request prior to entering into a contract, such as a contract of employment or other engagement with us. In this respect, we use your personal data for the following:

- administering job applications and, where relevant, offering you a role with us;
- carrying out due diligence checks on you, whether during the application process for a role with us or during your engagement with us, including by undertaking online searches prior to interview and checking references in relation to your education and your employment history;
- once you are employed or engaged by us in any capacity, for the performance of the contract of employment (or other agreement) between you and us;
- to pay you and to administer benefits (including pensions) in connection with your employment or other engagement with us;
- monitoring your attendance and your performance in your work, including in performance appraisals;
- promoting the school to prospective parents and others, including by publishing the work product(s) you create while employed by or otherwise engaged to work for the school;
- for disciplinary purposes, including conducting investigations where required;
- for other administrative purposes, for example to update you about changes to your terms and conditions of employment or engagement, or changes to your pension arrangements;
- for internal record-keeping, including the management of any staff feedback or complaints and incident reporting; and

- for any other reason or purpose set out in your employment or other contract with us.

(ii) Legitimate Interests

We process your personal data because it is necessary for our (or sometimes a third party's) legitimate interests. Our "legitimate interests" include our interests in running the school in a professional, sustainable manner, in accordance with all relevant ethical, educational, charitable, legal and regulatory duties and requirements (whether or not connected directly to data protection law). In this respect, we use your personal data for the following:

- providing you with information about us and what it is like to work for us (where you have asked for this, most obviously before you have made a formal application to work for us);
- for security purposes, including by operating security cameras in various locations on the school's premises;
- to enable relevant authorities to monitor the school's performance and to intervene or assist with incidents as appropriate;
- to provide education services to pupils, including where such services are provided remotely, either temporarily or permanently;
- to safeguard pupils' welfare and provide appropriate pastoral care;
- to carry out or cooperate with any school or external complaints, disciplinary or investigatory process;
- for the purposes of management planning and forecasting, research and statistical analysis;
- in connection with organising events and social engagements for staff;
- making travel arrangements on your behalf, where required;
- contacting you or your family members and 'next of kin' for business continuity purposes, to confirm your absence from work, etc.;
- publishing your image and likeness in connection with your employment or engagement with us;
- to monitor (as appropriate) use of the school's IT and communications systems in accordance with the school's ICT Acceptable use policy and government guidance such as Keeping Children Safe in Education.

(iii) Legal Obligations

We also process your personal data for our compliance with our legal obligations, notably those in connection with employment, charity/company law, tax law and accounting, and child welfare. In this respect, we use your personal data for the following:

- to meet our legal obligations (for example, relating to child welfare, social protection, equality, visa/immigration monitoring, employment, gender pay gap monitoring, immigration / visa sponsorship compliance and health and safety);
- for tax and accounting purposes, including transferring personal data to HM Revenue and Customs to ensure that you have paid appropriate amounts of tax, and in respect of any Gift Aid claims, where relevant;

- for the prevention and detection of crime, and in order to assist with investigations (including criminal investigations) carried out by the police and other competent authorities.

(iv) Special categories of data

Depending on your role and status, we process special categories of personal data (such as data concerning health, religious beliefs, racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious and philosophical beliefs, sex life and sexual orientation or union membership) or criminal convictions and allegations for the reasons set out below.

We will process this data on the basis that such processing is necessary to carry out obligations and exercise rights (both yours and ours) in relation to your employment or engagement.

In particular, we process the following types of special category personal data for the following reasons:

- your physical or mental health or condition(s) in order to record sick leave and take decisions about your fitness for work, or (in emergencies) act on any medical needs you may have. This may include COVID-19 (or similar) testing: including managing on-site testing and / or processing the results of tests taken by staff, and sharing this information with relevant health authorities;
- recording your racial or ethnic origin in order to monitor our compliance with equal opportunities legislation;
- Trade union membership, in connection with your rights as an employee, agent or contractor and our obligations as an employer or engager of your services;
- categories of your personal data which are relevant to investigating complaints made by you or others, for example concerning discrimination, bullying or harassment;
- data about any criminal convictions or offences committed by you, for example when conducting criminal background checks with the DBS, or where it is necessary to record or report an allegation (including to police or other authorities, with or without reference to you);

We will process special categories of personal data for lawful reasons only, including because:

- you have given us your explicit consent to do so, in circumstances where consent is appropriate;
- it is necessary to protect your or another person's vital interests, for example, where you have a life-threatening accident or illness in the workplace and we have to process your personal data in order to ensure you receive appropriate medical attention;
- it is necessary for the purposes of carrying out rights and obligations of the school in connection with employment law, or some function in the substantial public interest, including the safeguarding of children or vulnerable people, or as part of a process designed to protect others from malpractice, incompetence or unfitness in a role (or to establish the truth of any such allegations);
- To comply with public health requirements (e.g., in respect of COVID-19 (or other similar circumstances));
- it is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims, such as where any person has brought a claim or serious complaint against us or you.

(v) Low-level concerns about adults

We will process personal data about you, whether or not it constitutes special category data, in accordance with our policy on recording and sharing low-level concerns about adults. This will be processed for the same safeguarding reasons as set out above.

Such records are subject to the rules on retention set out in the school's Safeguarding & Child Protection Policy and you have the same rights of that information, as any other personal data that we hold on you. However, any requests to access, erase or amend personal data we hold in accordance with this policy may be subject to necessary exemptions, for example if we consider that compliance with the request might unreasonably impact the privacy rights of others or give rise to a risk of harm to children.

Sharing your information with others

For the purposes referred to in this Staff Privacy Notice and relying on the bases for processing as set out above, we may share your personal data with certain third parties. We may disclose limited personal data (including in limited cases special category or criminal data) to a variety of recipients including:

- other employees, agents and contractors (e.g. third parties processing data on our behalf as part of the provision of benefits including pensions, life assurance etc. – although this is not sharing your data in a legal sense, as these are considered data processors on our behalf);
- DBS and other relevant authorities and agencies such as the Department for Education, the ICO, Charity Commission, Independent Schools Inspectorate, HMRC, Home Office, Teaching Regulations Authority, any public health / NHS body and the local authority;
- our advisers where it is necessary for us to obtain their advice or assistance, including insurers, lawyers, accountants, occupational health or other external consultants;
- when the school is legally required to do so (by a court order, government body, law enforcement agency or other authority of competent jurisdiction), for example HM Revenue and Customs or police.
- third parties and their advisers in the unlikely event that those third parties are acquiring or considering acquiring all or part of the school, or we are reconstituting or setting up some form of joint working or partnership arrangement in the unlikely event that those third parties are acquiring or considering acquiring all or part of the school, or we are reconstituting [or setting up some form of joint working or partnership arrangement in the UK or abroad;

We may also share information about you with other employers in the form of a reference, where we consider it appropriate, or if we are required to do so in compliance with our legal obligations. References given or received in confidence may not be accessible under your UK GDPR rights.

How long your information is kept

Personal data relating to unsuccessful job applicants is deleted within 12 months following interview, except where we have notified you we intend to keep it for longer (and you have not objected).

For employees, subject to any other notices that we may provide to you, we may retain your personal data for a period of 7 years after your contract of employment (or equivalent agreement) has expired or been terminated.

However, some information may be retained for longer than this, for example incident reports and safeguarding files (including low-level concerns), in accordance with specific legal requirements.

Your rights

You have the following rights:

- to obtain access to, and copies of, the personal data that we hold about you;
- to require us to correct the personal data we hold about you if it is incorrect;
- to require us (in certain circumstances) to erase your personal data;
- to request that we restrict our data processing activities (and, where our processing is based on your consent, you may withdraw that consent, without affecting the lawfulness of our processing based on consent before its withdrawal);
- to receive from us the personal data we hold about you which you have provided to us, in a reasonable format specified by you, including for the purpose of you transmitting that personal data to another data controller;
- to object, on grounds relating to your particular situation, to any of our particular processing activities where you feel this has a disproportionate impact on your rights.

Please note that the above rights are not absolute, and we may be entitled to refuse requests where exceptions apply. The school will endeavour to respond to any such requests as soon as is reasonably practicable and in any event within statutory time-limits (which is generally one month, but actually fulfilling more complex or multiple requests, e.g. those involving third party information, may take longer).

This notice

The school will update this Staff Privacy Notice from time to time. Any substantial changes that affect your rights will be provided to you directly as far as is reasonably practicable.

Contact and complaints

If you have any queries about this Staff Privacy Notice or how we process your personal data, or if you wish to exercise any of your rights under applicable law, you should contact the HR Manager or the Privacy Officer initially or refer the matter through the staff grievance procedure.
