Under the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act (2006), all potential employees are required to provide evidence that they are eligible to work in the United Kingdom.

Applicants are required to produce documentation from List A to prove entitlement to work in the United Kingdom indefinitely.

If applicants are not able to produce a document from List A (or the required combination of documents as detailed below in List A), a document from List B (or a combination of documents, as detailed below in List B) must be produced indicating that the applicant has limited leave to be in the United Kingdom. The School will check the documentation at least every twelve months, in order to reassess the entitlement to remain in the United Kingdom.

Original documents must be provided.
